LIVE THE BRAAI LIFE

CADAC AND THE BRAAI LIFE

For more than 65 years Cadac have been at the heart of the South African “ Braai Culture “. Our ubiquitous blue cylinder is now iconic in southern Africa, and the Skottel is now known internationally. Over the decades many of our barbeque (braai) innovations have been at the forefront of the outdoor lifestyle enjoyed in southern Africa. The outdoors culture is on the beaches, out in “the bush“, in the mountains, at the sports fields and in the home and the back garden. We invite you to join us.

THE HISTORY OF THE BRAAI

The origins of the word “braai “ is Afrikaans for “ barbeque “ or “grill “, and the word and language originates from the early Dutch settlers who settled in Cape Town a few centuries ago. Now it is more than an expression of the way of cooking. It is a social custom. It is fun, it is entertainment, it is always social, it is outdoors, it is music and time to be happy and time to enjoy people, food and good times. Come over for a braai, let’s have a braai, lekker-braai, is the way of life. It is time for men to cook and be able to stand around “the braai “ and to discuss rugby, football or cricket tactics and the coach always getting the team selection wrong. The men are always right! We braai around a fire, we braai off wood or charcoal, we braai off gas on grids, grills, or flat plates. Join us for some fun. Come on, “LIVE THE BRAAI LIFE “

CADAC MERIDIAN RANGE

BRAAI IN STYLE

The Meridian range is a European-styled, high quality range of gas BBQs that uses the CADAC “Modular System” accessories. These allow a variety of cooking options to be used at the same time. The break-through in BBQ hygiene introduced with this range is; “the Easy-wash and clean” system. The smooth porcelain enamelled fire box and drainage channels flow to a drip cup, thus allowing the BBQ to be thoroughly cleaned using oven cleaner or detergent and water. The drip cup is emptied, wiped clean and easily replaced into the back of the BBQ after each use. This prevents an unhygienic and dirty interior of the BBQ. When the inside of the BBQ is wiped, there are no sharp edges that may cut hands.

BIG ON VALUE, BIG ON VERSATILITY

The Titan BBQ is a sturdy, stylish BBQ with superb quality and excellent value for money. It accommodates the Cadac “modular system” accessories which allow for a variety of cooking methods. One of the unique features is the convenient easy-to-clean system. The drip cup is emptied, wiped clean and easily replaced into the back of the BBQ after each use. This prevents an unhygienic and dirty interior of the BBQ. Moreover, when the inside of the BBQ is wiped, there are no sharp edges that may cut hands. The Titan is supplied with 3 cooking grids.
